

Travelling to Volterra

From Pisa:

Take a train from Pisa to Pontedera and then a bus from Pontedera to Volterra.

There is a train station at the Pisa Airport. Check the train timetable upon your arrival in Pisa. There are several trains throughout the day which will take you from Pisa Airport directly to Pontedera, otherwise you will need to change trains at Pisa Central station. All trains from Pisa Central in the direction of Florence stop in Pontedera. There is a train in this direction every 30 min.

The bus station in Pontedera is just outside train station. Take a bus [CPT Line 500] from Pontedera to Volterra.

Travel time: approximately 2-2.5 hours

From Florence:

Take a bus from the airport to the train station in Florence, train from Florence to Pontedera and then a bus from Pontedera to Volterra.

Take a shuttle bus from the Florence airport to the train station (Santa Maria Novella). Take a train to Pontedera (any train in the direction of Pisa - trains from Florence to Pontedera leave every 30 minutes.). From Pontedera follow the directions above (like from Pisa). Travel time: approximately 2.5 hours

From Rome:

Take a train from Rome to Florence, another one to Pontedera and then a bus to Volterra.

Take a train from the station at the airport to Rome Termini (the main train station in Rome). You can buy the ticket at the airport for the entire trip to Pontedera.

From Rome Termini take a train to Florence Santa Maria Novella. There are two types of trains: Regionale (slow but cheap, takes 3.5 hours), and Eurostar (fast and more expensive, takes 1.5 hour). From Florence follow the directions above.
